Alaska Department of Revenue
Permanent Fund Dividend Division

Dividend Assignment of Rights

Important information below
Please read carefully!

Assignment of Rights (AOR) forms will not be accepted by the Permanent Fund Dividend (PFD) Division prior to April 1, 2012. If you send an AOR form prior to April 1, 2012, it will be returned.

The Department of Revenue will not accept an AOR form with any changes or corrections on the form. This means nothing can be crossed out, whited out, or changed and initialed.

If you want to assign all or part of your PFD, complete this form and send the original to the address below. Incomplete AOR forms will not be processed. They will be returned to the Assignee.

Assignee: If an AOR is returned to you because it was incomplete or changed, you must complete a new one. Do not send the original with changes or corrections.

The Department of Revenue will not implement an assignment of a PFD unless the assignee named is a federal, state, municipal or tribal agency or a court. Dividends cannot be assigned to other entities or to an individual. The assignment must be for a debt owed to an agency or court, including court ordered restitution.

The Department of Revenue will not implement an assignment of a PFD dividend for a child unless specifically allowed by law. An assignment of a dividend may not be made on behalf of a child except that the dividend of a child may be assigned to satisfy restitution agreed to, or required under AS 47.12.120 or to satisfy a court-ordered fine or judgment for court-appointed attorney fees. (15 AAC 23.203(b)) Check CR or CF on the front of this form as applicable.

Once an assignment has been submitted to the Department of Revenue, it may not be changed or revoked by the assignor. (15 AAC 23.203(c))

The Department of Revenue will not accept a photocopy of the completed AOR form.

If you have any questions regarding this form or the AOR process, please contact the PFD Division at (907) 465-4671 or visit our web site at: www.pfd.alaska.gov.

Please Send completed form to: Tlingit-Haida Regional Housing Authority
